1. Chairman Vice-Chairman and Auditors

The BLASJC at its first meeting and subsequently on an annual basis shall (a) elect from one of its representatives a Chairman and Vice-Chairman and (b) appoint Auditors.

2. Duration of Appointments

- (i) Each representative on the BLASJC shall hold office from the date of the first meeting of the BLASJC following his appointment to the date of the next annual meeting of the BLASJC or until his appointment is terminated by the appointing Participating Authority which may be done at any time or until he ceases to be entitled to be a representative of that Participating Authority on a Joint Committee under the constitutional arrangements applicable to that appointing Participating Authority.
- (ii) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall hold office until the following Annual meeting but such office shall be deemed to be vacated if the appointment as a representative on the Joint Committee is terminated by their Participating Authority or if they cease to be entitled to be a representative on a Joint Committee under the constitutional arrangements applicable to that appointing Authority.

3. Servicing and Advice

- (i) It shall be the responsibility of the Lead Officer to convene all meetings of the BLASJC;
- (ii) An Advisory Board may be appointed by the BLASJC comprising the Lead Officer, such other officers of the Participating Authority and other persons appointed by the BLASJC and a representative nominated by the Department for Transport (DFT) to advise the BLASJC on any matter relating to the functions conferred on the BLASJC. The Advisory Board shall be entitled to depute one or more of their number to attend and advise at meetings of the BLASJC.

4. Meetings and Agenda

- (i) A meeting of the BLASJC may be called at such date, time and place:
 - a) at the instance of the Chairman; or
 - b) as may be determined by the BLASJC; or
 - c) by a requisition, signed by not less than one half of the representatives of the BLASJC delivered to the Lead Officer at least ten working days before the date of the meeting.
 - d) At the instance of the Lead Officer

Provided that the BLASJC shall meet at least once every year (the Annual Meeting).

The summons to any meeting shall set out the business to be transacted thereat, and no business other than that set out in the summons shall be considered at the meeting unless by reason of special circumstances, which shall be specified in the minutes, the Chairman of the meeting is of the opinion that the item should be considered at the meeting as a matter of urgency.

- (ii) At every meeting of the BLASJC the Chairman, if present, shall preside. If the Chairman is absent the Vice-Chairman, if present, shall preside. If both the Chairman and Vice Chairman are absent the meeting shall elect a Chairman from one of its representatives. For the purposes of these Standing Orders references to the Chairman, in the context of the conduct of business at meetings, shall mean the person presiding under the Standing Order.
- (iii) Any Participating Authority acting through its representative on the Joint Committee or through an Advisory Board Representative may give written notice of an item to be placed on the Agenda of the BLASJC. All notices of items for agendas must be received by the Lead Officer not less than fifteen working days prior to the meeting to which the agenda relates.

- (iv) Each of the Participating Authorities and every Advisory Board representative shall be entitled to receive a copy of the Agenda, papers and minutes of the proceedings of the BLASJC.
- (v) The Lead Officer shall not less than seven clear days before the intended meeting of the BLASJC: -
 - (a) Circulate a notice thereof to each Participating Authority representative on the BLASJC and to the nominated officer of each Participating Authority, accompanied by a notice of the business to be transacted. Provided that the failure of any such notice to be delivered shall not affect the validity of the meeting or of the business transacted thereat.
 - (b) Publish notice thereof in the London Gazette or such other daily national publication as may be specified by the Lead Officer. Provided Always if not published in the London Gazette the Lead Officer shall give 14 days notice in writing to the Participating Authorities of the name of newspapers in which the notice of meetings is to be published.
- (vi) Deputations shall be entitled, upon prior notification being given to the Lead Officer and at the discretion of the Chairman, to attend and address the meeting for not more than ten minutes and to answer questions from representatives on the BLASJC for a further ten minutes.

- (vii) A representative of the DFT may attend the meetings of the BLASJC as adviser of the BLASJC and may participate fully on all items of business but not vote.

4A. Cancellation of Meetings

The Lead Officer may cancel or postpone any meeting in consultation with the Chairman prior to the issue of the agenda or subsequently if there is no business to be transacted, or in other exceptional circumstances

5. Substitute Members

If a representative of the BLASJC is unable to be present at a meeting of the BLASJC, that Participating Authority may be represented by a substitute duly appointed by that Participating Authority for the purpose in accordance with their own constitutional arrangements and whose name has been duly notified in writing to the Lead Officer of the BLASJC by the nominated Officer of the Participating Authority concerned at least 24 hours prior to the Committee meeting. A substitute attending a meeting of the BLASJC shall declare and vote as the Participating Authority representative on the BLASJC. No substitute representative may attend any meeting at which the representative for which he is substitute is present.

6. Attendance Record

At every meeting each representative attending shall record such presence on the attendance sheet or other form of record provided by the Lead Officer.

7. Order of Business

- (i) The order of business at every meeting shall be:
 - (a) to approve as a correct record the minutes of the last meeting;
 - (b) to dispose of business (if any) remaining from the last meeting;
 - (c) to receive and consider reports prepared for the BLASJC
- (ii) The Chairman shall have discretion to alter the order in which business is taken at the meeting.

8. Minutes

- (i) Minutes of every meeting of the BLASJC or any Subcommittee shall be submitted to and signed at the next following meeting of the body concerned.
- (ii) The Chairman shall put the question that the minutes submitted be approved as a correct record of the meeting in question.
- (iii) No other motion or discussion shall take place upon the Minutes except upon their accuracy. If no such question is raised or if it is raised, then as soon as it has been disposed of, the Chairman shall sign the Minutes.

9. Sub-Committees

- (i) The BLASJC shall be entitled to appoint such Sub-committees as it thinks fit.
- (ii) The composition of all Sub-committees shall be such as to reflect the balance of political parties or groups on the BLASJC in accordance with Part 1 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 save that no representative may be appointed to a Sub-committee unless willing to serve.

10. Voting

- (i) Each representative (or if absent the named substitute) shall be entitled to one vote on each question to be decided. Subject to paragraph 10 (iii), every question shall be determined by a show of hands and shall be determined by a simple majority.
- (ii) In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- (iii) On the requisition of any representative made before any vote is taken on a motion or an amendment, the voting shall be recorded so as to show how each representative present and voting voted. The name of any representative present and not voting shall also be recorded.

11. Quorum

- (i) The quorum of the BLASJC shall be one tenth of the number of the Participating Authority representatives but in any event not less than three, and the quorum of a Sub-committee shall be one quarter of the number of members of the Sub-Committee.
- (ii) For the avoidance of doubt non-attendance of the representative appointed by the DFT shall not render the meeting inquorate nor shall he be counted in deciding whether a quorum has been established.
- (iii) No business can be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present.

12. Rules of Debate

- (i) A motion or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded.
- (ii) A representative shall address the Chairman and direct any speech to the question under discussion. If two or more representatives indicate they wish to speak the Chairman shall call on one to speak first.
- (iii) An amendment shall be:
 - (a) to leave out words
 - (b) to leave out words and insert or add others
 - (c) to insert or add wordsbut any such amendment must not have the effect of introducing a new proposal into or of negating the original motion
- (iv) A representative shall not speak for longer than 5 minutes on any matter without the consent of the BLASJC.
- (v) No representative shall address the BLASJC more than once on any issue, but the mover of an original motion may reply, in which reply no new matter shall be introduced, but the reply shall be confined strictly to answering the previous observations.
- (vi) A representative may claim to speak on a point of order or in personal explanation and shall be entitled to be heard forthwith. A point of order shall relate only to an alleged breach of a specified statutory provision or a specified standing order and the way in which the representative raising it considers that it has been broken. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by him in the current debate, which may appear to have been misunderstood. The ruling of the Chairman on a point of order or on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall not be open to discussion.

- (vii) If an amendment is rejected other amendments may be moved on the original motion. If an amendment is carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the motion upon which any other amendment may be moved.
- (viii) A further amendment shall not be moved until the BLASJC has disposed of every amendment previously moved, provided that the Chairman shall have discretion to allow debate to take place on two or more amendments.
- (ix) A representative at the conclusion of a speech of another representative may move without comment:-
 - (a) that the question be now put
 - (b) that the debate be now adjourned
 - (c) that the BLASJC proceed to the next business
 - (d) that the BLASJC do now adjourn

If such a motion is seconded, the Chairman, shall, subject to the mover's right to reply, put the motion to the vote, and if it is carried: –

In case (a) – the motion then before the meeting shall, subject to

The right of reply, be put to the vote; or

In case (b) – the debate on the motion then before the BLASJC shall stand adjourned until the next ordinary meeting of the BLASJC; or

In case (c) – the motion then before the BLASJC shall be regarded as lost and the BLASJC shall proceed to the next item on the Agenda, if any; or

In case (d) – the meeting shall stand adjourned.

- (x) If the Chairman is of the opinion that the matter before the BLASJC has been sufficiently discussed he may put the motion that the question now be put
- (xi) The Chairman shall decide all questions of order and any ruling by the Chairman upon such questions and the interpretations of these Standing Orders, and upon matters arising in debate shall be final and shall not be open to discussion.

13. Admission of Public to Meetings

All meetings of the BLASJC shall be open to the public (including the Press) except to the extent that they are excluded whether during the whole or part of the proceedings either:-

- (i) In accordance with Section 100A(2) of the Local Government Act 1972; or
- (ii) By resolution passed to exclude the public on the grounds that it is likely, in view of the nature of the proceedings that if members of the public were present there would be disclosure to them of exempt information as defined in Section 100I of the Local Government Act 1972. Any such Resolution shall identify the proceedings or the part of the proceedings to which it applies and state the description, in terms of Schedule 12A to the Local Government Act 1972 of the exempt information giving rise to the exclusion of the public.

14. Disorderly Conduct

- (i) If the Chairman is of the opinion that a representative has misconducted, or is misconducting himself by persistently disregarding the ruling of the Chairman or by behaving irregularly, improperly or offensively or by wilfully obstructing the business of the BLASJC he may notify the meeting of that opinion and may take any of the following action either separately or in sequence:-
 - (a) he may direct the representative to refrain from speaking during all, or part of the remainder of the meeting
 - (b) he may direct the representative to withdraw from all or part of the remainder of the meeting
 - (c) he may order the representative to be removed from the meeting
 - (d) he may adjourn the meeting for such period as shall seem expedient to him
- (ii) In the event of general disturbance which, in the opinion of the Chairman, renders the due and orderly dispatch of business impossible, the Chairman, in addition to any other power invested in the Chairman, may without question, adjourn the meeting of the BLASJC for such periods as in the Chairman's discretion shall be considered expedient.

15. Disturbance by Members of the Public

If any member of the public interrupts the proceedings at a meeting of the BLASJC, the Chairman may warn that person to stop. If the person continues the interruption, the Chairman may order that person's removal from the meeting. In the event of general disturbance in the part of the room provided for the public, the Chairman may order that part to be cleared.

16. Urgent Business

(i) If at any time the Lead Officer considers any matter is urgent and should be decided upon prior to the next meeting of the BLASJC then he shall consult the BLASJC's Chairman. If the Chairman agrees the matter is urgent, then the Lead Officer shall be empowered to make the decision in accordance with such recommendation, subject to the decision being recorded in writing and signed by the Lead Officer to the BLASJC.

(ii) All decisions taken under this Standing Order shall be reported to the next meeting of the BLASJC.

17. Rescission of Preceding Resolution

No motion to rescind any resolution passed at the meeting and no motion or amendment to the same effect shall be proposed at that meeting.

18. Delegation of Functions

The BLASJC may delegate to officers such of their functions as are permissible under statute and may, in relation to any of those functions, require that the exercise of those functions be subject to such conditions as the BLASJC deems fit to impose.

19. Variations and Revocation of Standing Orders

Any motion to vary or revoke these Standing Orders shall require confirmation at the next ordinary meeting of the BLASJC before the proposed variation or revocation shall be considered to be effective.

20. Interests of Participating Authority representatives in Contracts and Other Matters

The following code of conduct in relation to the interests of representatives in Contracts and other matters shall apply save that if any Participating Authority adopts a Code of Conduct pursuant to the provisions of section 51 of the Local Government Act 2000 then that Code shall apply with respect to the representative of that Participating Authority: -

- (i) Where any Participating Authority representative has given a general notice of a pecuniary interest of his or of his spouse, and is thereby relieved of the statutory duty to declare that interest at a meeting at which a contract or other matter affecting that interest is to be considered, he shall nevertheless orally remind the meeting of that interest. Any such reminder shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- (ii) Where any Participating Authority representative has declared a pecuniary interest in a contract, grant, proposed contract or other matter, whether by giving a general notice or by making an oral declaration at a meeting, he shall withdraw from the room in which the meeting is being held while the matter is under consideration unless:

- (a) the disability to discuss, or vote upon any matter arising from the contract or other matter has been removed by the Secretary of State under Section 97 of the Local Government Act 1972; or
- (b) the contract, grant, proposed contract or other matter is under consideration by the meeting as part of the report or minutes of a subcommittee (in the case of a meeting of the BLASJC) and is not itself the subject of debate.
- (iii) Any person, other than an officer of the BLASJC, who is appointed to do anything in connection with the BLASJC or subcommittee which enables him to speak at meetings of the BLASJC or subcommittee shall make the same disclosures of pecuniary interests, and shall withdraw from the room in which the meeting is being held on the same occasions, as he would have to do if he were a representative of the BLASJC or subcommittee.

21. Interests of Officers in Contract and Other Matters

- (i) In addition to his duty under Section 117 of the Local Government Act 1972 if it comes to the knowledge of any officer that he has a disclosable pecuniary interest in any contract which has been or is proposed to be, entered into by the BLASJC, or in some other matters which is to be considered by BLASJC or subcommittee, he shall as soon as practicable, give notice in writing to the Lead Officer of the fact that he is interested therein.

- (ii) For the purpose of this standing order, a disclosable pecuniary interest is an interest that, if the officer were a representative of the BLASJC and if the contract or other matter were to be considered at a meeting of the BLASJC at which he were present, he would have to disclose it under Section 94 of the Local Government Act 1972.
- (iii) The Lead Officer shall record in a book to be kept for the purpose particulars of any notice of a pecuniary interest given by an officer under Section 117 of the Local Government Act 1972 or paragraph (i). The book shall, during the ordinary office hours of the Lead Authority be open for inspection by any representative of the BLASJC.
- (iv) Where an officer submits a report to a meeting on a matter in which he has declared an interest under Section 117 of the Local Government Act 1972 or paragraph (i) he shall state that such declaration has been made, and give brief details of it, in a separate paragraph at the commencement of the report.
- (v) Where any officer advises orally a meeting of the BLASJC or a subcommittee on a contract, grant, proposed contract or other matter and has declared a pecuniary interest in that matter, whether under the requirements of Section 117 of the Local Government Act 1972, or of paragraph (i) he shall remind the meeting orally of that interest.

22. Access to Documents, Information and Land

- (i) In addition to the rights of representatives of the BLASJC under Section 100F of the Local Government Act 1972, but subject to paragraph (ii) below, any member of the Participating Authorities shall be entitled on application to the Lead Officer to inspect any document or recorded information in the possession, or under the control, of the BLASJC access to which is necessary for the proper discharge of his functions as a member of that Participating Authority;

Provided that: -

- (a) no person shall be entitled to inspect any document or have access to any information relating to a matter in which he has a pecuniary interest;
- (b) access to information not in the form of a document need not be given where the cost of providing the access is unreasonably high, or during such period as the giving of access would unreasonably disrupt the work of the BLASJC.
- (ii) In the case of any document other than a document to which the rights under Section 100F of the Local Government Act 1972 apply, and if the Lead Officer considers that access to any document or other information is not necessary for the proper discharge of the functions (as a member of the Participating Authority or as a representative of the BLASJC, as the case may be) of the person requesting such access, and there is good reason why access should be refused, he may refuse the person concerned access to the document or information in question.

- (iii) Where a person inspects a document under the rights conferred by Section 100F of the Local Government Act 1972 or this standing order, and the BLASJC may lawfully make a copy of that document, he shall be entitled, on request, to be given a copy of that document provided that:
 - (a) a reasonable charge shall be made for the copy unless the Lead Officer otherwise directs;
 - (b) a copy may be refused if the Lead Officer considers that it is impracticable to make a copy.
- (iv) If a representative on the BLASJC or an elected member or officer of the Participating Authorities wishes to have access to land or buildings in the occupation of the BLASJC to which the public do not have access and to which such representative, member or officer does not regularly have access, he shall apply to the Lead Officer. Unless the Lead Officer considers that there are good reasons why such access should not be given, he shall give permission but may attach conditions to that permission including particularly a condition that a specified officer of the BLASJC shall accompany the representative, member or officer.

- (v) If any member of the Participating Authorities or any other representative of the BLASJC is dissatisfied with any determination of the Lead Officer under Section 100F of the Local Government Act 1972 or under this standing order, he may refer the question to the BLASJC which shall, after considering any representations that person or the Lead Officer may wish to make, determine whether or not to uphold the Lead Officer's determination.
- (vi) No elected members or officer of the Participating Authorities and no representative of the BLASJC shall have any claim by virtue of his position:
 - (a) to enter any land or buildings occupied by the BLASJC to which the public do not have access or to which such members, officer or representative do not regularly have access except with the permission of the Lead Officer;
 - (b) to exercise any power of the BLASJC to enter or inspect other land or buildings, except where specifically authorised to do so by the BLASJC;
 - (c) to exercise any other power of the BLASJC;
 - (d) to issue any order with respect to any works which are being carried out by, or on behalf of, the BLASJC, or with respect to any goods or services which are being, or might be, purchased by the BLASJC

- (vii) The Proper Officer for the Purpose of Section 100F(2) of the Local Government Act 1972 and for the purposes of this standing order is the Lead Officer.
- (viii) For the purposes of this standing order a person has a pecuniary interest in a matter if, on the assumptions that he were a representative on the BLASJC, and that the matter were to be considered by the BLASJC, he would have to declare the interest under Section 94 of the Local Government Act 1972.
- (ix) Where any information is given to any person (including a member of the Participating Authorities, or any representative of the BLASJC) by the BLASJC or by one of the employees of the Lead Authority in the course of transacting any business of the BLASJC, and it is made clear (in whatever way) that the information is given in confidence, that person is not entitled to make that information public without the consent of the BLASJC.

23. Suspension of Standing Orders

Any of the preceding Standing Orders may be suspended at any meeting so far as regards any business on the Agenda for such a meeting, providing that the majority of the representatives present and voting so decide.

24. Interpretation and Definitions

In these Standing Orders the following terms shall have the following meanings assigned to them:-

“Approved Local Authority” means a local authority specified in the Bus Lane Contraventions (Approved Local Authorities) (England) Order

2005 (as amended) or any other local authority designated as an Approved Local Authority in any order made subsequently under Section 144(3) (b) and (14) of the 2000 Act which has functions conferred on it under Regulation 11 of the Regulations
